

Longing

Alexandra Schmal

Eve-ry day I'm thinking about You. There's no way that I wouldn't do.
Jet sometimes it feels You're far away. Through this cold, long nights I'm calling out to You.

Chorus 1:

I am longing for Your presence, longing for You to touch my soul.
Can't You see my yearning, I need to feel You touch my heart.
Where is the joy you promised, love and peace of mind.
I'm longing for You! I'm waiting for You!

Seems to me every now and then we need to get back on our knees to get rooted once again.

In our heads so many things that holds us down. While You say I am here, when you call out for me.

Chorus 1

Bridge:

I need an anchor where I can hold on to. God, help me to find my hope again. Give me direction signs for my way out, and let me see Your daylight again!

Chorus 2

I begin to feel Your presence, please would You just flood my soul.
I know You hear my yearning, I feel You start to touch my heart.
You always keep the things You promise, love and peace of mind.
I'm holding on to You! I'm waiting for You! (2x)
