

MAKE ME BELIEVE

Alexandra Schmal

Heaven told me I have to be faithful, the darkness can come tonight.
Heaven told me I have to be stronger, for with Him I will survive.

Ohohoh, keep standing tall, 'till heaven falls down on my.

With my hands up in the sky, I'm crying: Make me believe!
Knowing that He'll treat me right, I'm sighing: Make me, make me believe!

They have told me about the book of love, that it was and no longer will be, but why telling me, when they don't know the meaning. Their ego made them unable to see.

Ohohoh, keep standing tall, 'till heaven falls down on my.

With my hands up in the sky, I'm crying: Make me believe!
Knowing that He'll treat me right, I'm sighing: Make me, make me believe!
Spent nights of kneeling on the floor and praying: Make me believe!
Want to be with you for evermore, so come on make me, make me believe!

Open up your arms He'll take you to the sky. He will care for you, share everything with you, be with you, loving you...He'll treat you nothing but right.

Ohohoh, keep standing tall, 'till heaven falls down on my.

With my hands up in the sky, I'm crying: Make me believe!
Knowing that He'll treat me right, I'm sighing: Make me, make me believe!
Spent nights of kneeling on the floor and praying: Make me believe!
Want to be with you for evermore, so come on make me, make me believe!
